Anthem "Evening and Morning" Sir Herbert Oakeley

Comes, at times, a stillness as of even,

Steeping the soul in memories of love,

As when the glow is sinking out of heaven,

As when the twilight deepens in the grove.

Comes at length a sound of many voices,

As when the waves break lightly on the shore,

As when at dawn the feather'd choir rejoices,

Singing aloud because the night is o'er.

Comes, at times, a voice of days departed,

On the dying breath of evening borne.

Sinks then the traveller, faint and weary-hearted,

"Long is the way," it whispers, "and forlorn."

Comes, at last, a voice of thrilling gladness,

Borne on the breezes of the rising day.

Saying, "The Lord shall make an end of sadness,"

Saying: "The Lord shall wipe all tears away."

"THE GOSPEL OF THE CROSS."

For

"A WORLD UPON A CROSS."

This evening, Mr. Sedgewick begins a series of Sermons on the "Seven Words" from the Cross—The subjects to be treated are set down on a card which is in the pews today. This course is based on the belief that the preaching needed today is not preaching about the War but preaching in the light of the War. It is based on this farther belief that the only help and comfort for the desperate need of our world is in the Cross that stands up against the dark sky.

At the close of this evening's service Mr. Oliver will give a brief Organ Recital, when Mr. E. V. Illsey, Baritone, will sing.

FRUIT SHOWER FOR THE SOLDIERS. An appeal has come for jam, jelly, etc., for the soldiers at the Sanitarium. The ladies of the congregation are asked to bring a jar of fruit to the Church today or tomorrow that we may respond to this appeal.

Those who desire to assist the BIBLE SOCIETY in its work, as set forth by Mr. Cooper last Sunday, will please make their contribution today.

TUESDAY, 3 p.m. The Regular Meeting of the W. M. S. will be held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Gauld, 42 Herkimer Street.

WEDNESDAY, 7.30 p.m. The Senior Mission Band will meet at the home of Miss Marguerite Fenwick, 271 MacNab Street South.

WEDNESDAY, 8 p.m. The Mid-Week Meeting for Prayer and Bible Study.

The Lord's Supper will be observed by us on Sunday, March 3rd. Will those who desire to unite with the Church advise the Minister before that date.
